

Building and Managing Your Faith Library

A Northern Colorado Faith Library Seminar

February 27, 2010

Are you interested in starting, revitalizing or improving a faith library?

The Northern Colorado Faith Library (NCFL) network is offering a one-day seminar that will address the purpose and benefits of a faith library. In this practical seminar you will learn how to

- Define “faith literature”
- Get started in building a faith library
- Sustain your faith library as a viable resource
- Evaluate and implement online services
- Make optimum use of other library sources
- Effectively deal with operational issues

Also, see online demonstrations of Web-based systems now used by the NCFL network libraries and tour the NCFL library at FUMC, named the Outstanding Congregational Library for 2009 by the national Church and Synagogue Library Association.

Presenters

Eddy Hopkins, NCFL staff librarian

Sue-Ellen Jones, Teen Services/Reference librarian, Poudre River Public Library District

Amy Hoseth, liaison librarian for Philosophy/Religion at CSU's Morgan Library

Representatives from the NCFL network

Sponsors

NCFL network faith libraries at First United Methodist Church,

Our Saviour's Lutheran Church, and

Blessed John XXIII University Parish (Roman Catholic), Fort Collins Church and Synagogue Library Association, based in Portland, Oregon

Fort Collins Area Interfaith Council

Peaks and Plains District, Rocky Mountain Conference of the United Methodist Church

Location

The Parlor

First United Methodist Church (FUMC)

1005 Stover Street

Fort Collins, CO 80524-3849

Time

9:30 a.m. to 3:00 p.m.

Doors open at 9:00 a.m.

Cost

The seminar is free. Box lunches will be available for $10.

Register by February 24

E-mail library@fcfumc.net

For each person attending, list

- name
- phone number or email address
- organizational affiliation
- request for box lunch, if desired

For full details, call (970) 266-8388 or visit http://www.nocofaithlibrary.org/News_and_Events.html